

Youth Development Project for Out-of-School Youths

Every year, 3,000 youths drop out from school, and 80% tend to get into drugs...

Youth Inc is an initiative set up by the Ministry of Community Development, Youth & Sports to support and fund groups reaching out to Out of School Youths (OSYs). It aims to harness the potential of OSYs and engage them in meaningful pursuits so as to enhance their future employability.

Supported by Youth Inc, the Youth Development Project is a collaborative effort by

- The Young Entrepreneurship Mastery
- Singapore Decision Education Foundation
- True Hearts Connection

This project constitutes a year long program that aims to help OSYs to:

- Discover and realize their potentials
- Equip themselves with constructive and employable skills
- Venture new arenas and challenge themselves
- Enhance their decision making skills using Decision Analysis tools
- Learn and understand their personality profile
- Obtain career guidance & coaching through training & mentoring
- Pursue and realize their dreams
